

Unique Student Identifier (USI)

Unique Student Identifier (USI)

As of 1 January 2015, every Registered Training Organisation (RTO) is required to comply with the Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) Standard 36 Student Identifiers Act 2014.

Further, an RTO cannot issue a Vocational Education Training (VET) Statement of Attainment or qualification to an individual unless the individual has supplied a valid USI.

If you don't have a valid USI, you can obtain one for free from the following website:

www.usi.gov.au

From this link you can administer your USI, including:

- Creating a USI
- Log in to your USI account
- Resetting your USI linked password
- Access your training records or student transcript
- Learn about the legislation, privacy and security of the USI
